Mary, Rich and I are so saddened at the loss of Bob. He was truly a good friend. It was always a cheery time when he would greet me in the workout room--always with a big smile and a hug. I will always treasure to visit with you two when I brought him his "puffs". We will miss him!!! Rich and Jan Pattarozzi

Bob,I will always remember the wonderful times Frank and I shared with you and Mary. Your yearly jaunts to Connecticut and the wonderful picnics you shared with our family. My grankids still talk about the dinner at Maggie McFlys. I will miss our phone calls. The support you and Mary gave me after I lost Frank will never be forgotten. Take care of Frank for me until we all meet again. Love and sympathy to Mary, Laurie, David, Brian, Sylvie and your beautiful grandchildren. Love Sam

One of the many memories I have of Bob is when we went to Houston for the rodeo. Bob really got into the whole western theme by wearing a cowboy hat, jeans, and boots. He especially enjoyed getting his boots shined by a really good looking lady. I think he had his new boots shined three times in one day! I'm going to miss you Bob.(Gwen Briggs)
