Hi Eddie- this is Mike Seymour. Man, I am so so sorry to hear about this. This is a real shock to me. I am not even sure what to say. I always liked your mom and she always made me feel welcome when I came to your house. I know you may not want to talk and I can understand if not, but let me know if you do need to talk. I know it is hard right now but eventually that pain will go away and you and your family can be at peace.

I love you mom!! I don't know how I am going to go on without you. You were my best friend, we went everywhere together ; to the Doctor's, store and you made sure to come to Corbin's parties and performances. You helped me and Corbin so much! You did everything for your family and grand kids. You were a devoted mother, wife, daughter and grandma. My life is never gonna be the same without you.

Lionel, Cathy, Kevin, Bonnie, and Eddie, I was so sad to hear. Carol will be missed dearly. She was so sweet and had a good personality. Carol, Susie, Cindy, and me enjoyed our 1st Spring Break at our age we could not be happier to see Paul Anka at the casino. We had so much fun and Carol kept us laughing. She was like a sister to Susie. We all met in junior high school. I'd see her every now and than at the grocery. I will miss her. My prayers are with you all. Love, Joanie, Sid, & family

I love you mom. I have no idea how I will go on without you. You are my best friend. So many ups and downs over the years and we loved each other no matter what. I'm finding out now how the mother daughter relationship is and how no matter what I still love Maddie unconditionally. My life will never be the same. I love you forever.

into heaven. As only God knows our number of days, may we appreciate each heartfelt moment as if there were none left to save. Let us take on the beginning of each day as a true gift from above. Today is a blessing as many are to come. Miss Carol is God's angel now moving clouds and expecting an abundant life journey full of eventful moments for us all. Love, The Roussells
