I was only able to visit and sit down and talk with her once a couple of weeks ago. We had an interesting talk, she was very spiritual. My thoughts and prayers are with her and all the family. Chaplain Mike with STPH Hospice

Dear Cousins Ronald and Donald, My late husband, Jim Abell, (4-29-1926 to 10-21-2014), and I last saw you when you came to our Church Rd., Folsom home in your capacity as arborists. I fondly remember that we had a good visit. After Katrina Jim and I moved back to Dallas where we have a son, two grandsons and their families, aswell as my sister, Amelia Jenkins, and brother, Raymond Robert Core. Your mother was such a lovely winsome young woman, and your father was one of the best. They both gave you and your siblings a great upbringing, and I was proud to be one of your relatives. I pray that the Holy Spirit comforts your hearts as you continue to thrive despite your great losses. Sincerely, Mary Core Abell, (daughter of Tom and Laura Bell Core)
