Working with Joseph over the last several years has been a great experience! His never failing memory, keen astuteness, human compassion, and quick wit were unmatched. He was truly "An Extraordinary Leader". I can hear him laughing now, "right??". Joseph we are all better people for having you in our lives. We miss you!

I have been reading all of the comments about Joseph and everyone has captured all of the positive attributes of him and they are "spot on". I first met Joseph when he was in the EHS organization and he came to Chicago to meet with management and share what his organization could assist us when needed. He was seated at the far end of the table and as he stood up I recall looking up at this mountain of a man who had a booming (almost regal sounding) voice and as he extended his hand he said, "hello my name is Joseph" as he handed me his business card. His business card could barely contain all of the certifications he had acquired! Over the years I had the pleasure of working on many sub-committees he chaired and he was ALWAYS professional, knowledgeable and respectful of every member on the committee. I found him to be extremely smart and a very quick study when he had to learn something new after he moved into Operations. His enthusiasm was "catchy" and if you were ever having a bad day you would never know it. If you were having a call with him he gave you his undivided attention and made you feel you as if nothing else mattered. One of my last conversations with him was when I was having a particularly frustrating day after a long cable cut and he said "One day does not define you MB" and that has been my mantra ever since. The world is a sadder place without him and so is AT&T!

Joseph M. Mon, The Warrior, fought an undeniably great battle, which ended on June 1st, 2015. My friend, mentor, boss, and absolutely amazing human being is home with The Master. If you ever met him, you felt his spirit immediately. He never changed no matter the circumstances or with the people that surrounded him. We all learned SOMETHING from Joseph! Cynthia and Christopher, you know I'm with you each and every day! LYMIT People come into your life for a reason, a season or a lifetime. When you figure out which one it is, you will know what to do for each person. When someone is in your life for a REASON, it is usually to meet a need you have expressed. They have come to assist you through a difficulty; to provide you with guidance and support; to aid you physically, emotionally or spiritually. They may seem like a godsend, and they are. They are there for the reason you need them to be. Then, without any wrongdoing on your part or at an inconvenient time, this person will say or do something to bring the relationship to an end. Sometimes they die. Sometimes they walk away. Sometimes they act up and force you to take a stand. What we must realize is that our need has been met, our desire fulfilled; their work is done. The prayer you sent up has been answered and now it is time to move on. Some people come into your life for a SEASON, because your turn has come to share, grow or learn. They bring you an experience of peace or make you laugh. They may teach you something you have never done. They usually give you an unbelievable amount of joy. Believe it. It is real. But only for a season. LIFETIME relationships teach you lifetime lessons; things you must build upon in order to have a solid emotional foundation. Your job is to accept the lesson, love the person, and put what you have learned to use in all other relationships and areas of your life. It is said that love is blind but friendship is clairvoyant.— Unknown Thank you, Joseph! "Who let the dogs out? Woof, Woof" Debbie Craig

Joseph was a big man, with a big voice and a big mind; but he had an even bigger heart. He was always focused on how he could help the company, our customers, our employees but always on helping people. I know that there are many rooms in my Father's house and that Joseph is home with God in one of those rooms, but it makes our rooms on Earth seem a little smaller and a little more drab for Joseph's absence. In the assurance of the Resurrection that we will meet again, I pray that God will surround his family with grace and carry them through their sorrows. The Venerable Peter S. Cornell, Dcn

Cynthia and Chris, please accept our heartfelt condolences, words cannot begin to express the sadness you are feeling right now, but we are here for you and we are praying for you to get through this. God bless you and may the soul of Joseph rest in the everlasting peace of Christ Almighty. Joseph was not merely my former boss: he was my mentor and friend throughout the years that we worked together, and he remained a friend and mentor until his death. He had a brilliant mind, very incisive. He was a first-rate person and saw excellence in everyone, he was honest, skilled, well prepared, and humble and will be greatly missed. He left an indelible mark on me and everyone he came in contact with. In my opinion, the finest tribute that can be given to him as a boss, mentor and friend is that he was, at all times, a credit to us all. Great and merciful is our God. He who believes in Him shall never die, and with Him shall walk an everlasting life. Joseph may you rest in peace..Heartfelt, Kevin and Berni Roy

To the Mon family and friends, Cynthia may you find comfort and feel the presence of everlasting Love because Joseph lives in you and others. Love is eternal, it never dies, it lives on in us, through us and as us. May tears of sorrow be shared with tears of joy and precious memories. Please know that Joseph was a value added to AT&T as a whole and anyone that had the pleasure of working with him. He gave respect to all and received respect from all. Joseph will be greatly missed. AT&T friends - Joseph was an extraordinary employee and leader. He was committed to accomplishing whatever was before him and led by example. May we channel what we have learned from Joseph and carry on for we know he would not accept or expect anything less. Rest in peace my friend your Big Rock team got this, for you taught us well. Extremely saddened to learn of Joseph's passing. I worked for Joseph for several years. He was an excellent person to work for and we shared a lot of good moments. He came to Tuscaloosa AL to meet me and fellow co workers for my 30th work anniversary. We had Dreamland BBQ and enjoyed the fellowship. Joseph appreciated those around him and I will always remember him for taking time out of his busy schedule.

I started working for Joseph in 2008. The first thing I remember is he laughed at my Cajun accent and how short I was, that moment let me know everything was going to be great. He was very proud of his job and the places he had worked. I remember coming to work and not knowing if the coffee or the cologne smell was the most overpowering, but It did let me know he was in his office that day. He spoke often of his wife and son and when he did he had the biggest smile, he was so proud of his family. It was a great pleasure to work for a man who was so intelligent as Joseph. I pray for his wife and son, I am so sorry for your loss.
