Jack, We are so sorry for you and your families' loss. Marie and I shared membership in the River Ridge Homemakers club for several years before she and John moved to Covington. She was always so nice and a pleasure to be around. I was surprised to see her at the Trace and learn she and Muffin had become friends. Everytime we see Muffin she tells us how much she misses her. What a blessing for her to have had you to care for her and bring her so much pleasure. She will be missed. Bonnie Lonegrass
