Meeting Schmidtie only twice was enough for me to know he was good people as is the whole crew back there, Debbie had warned me of you all and once I had the pleasure of meeting everyone I felt like part of the crew and thankful you accepted me and for that I felt close to Schmidtie and must say I will miss him and will always remember this last April when Debz and I were there for for French Quarter Fest and at The Oggs for the gathering, I was watching the grill and Schmidtie took over and when he was cutting the meat someone asked him why are you cutting it that way and he replied, "Everyone gets a chunk of meat" even though Cathy didn't agree to the size of the chunks it was FUNNY....! Rest in Peace Brother....you will be missed...!

Mr. John was always such a kind man to me growing up. He graciously opened his home up to me any time my best friend, Johnny had me over to visit. I can remember many family dinners sitting around with his family hearing stories and sharing laughter. Mr. John will be missed.
