With the heaviest heart we share our sadness in the loss of my dearest friend and brother. Julie, you and Jack have been in every fabric of my life for the better part of some 38 years. You have always been family to me in the very essence of the word. And you always will be. To all the family members of Jack, our deepest condolences. Sue and I know that our pain in the loss of Jack cannot compare to what you all are feeling. We only hope that in the coming days you will find God's peace and love. Jack, we will meet again. I'am a better person from knowing Jack. His love for life and people was as large as his glowing personality. Quick with a funny joke and he would literally hand me the shirt off his back, as I'am sure he has done for many others. What a blessing to have had the honor to know him. Surely missed by all that knew him. Brothers always!!! Ronnie Dowda
