Sandra H Shubert, 69 of Covington, LA died on Saturday, February 27, 2016, at St. Tammany Parish Hospital in Covington, LA.

Born on Wednesday, May 22, 1946 in Spartanburg, SC to the late Walter C. Hoffman and Mable Hoffman-Martin.

She is survived by her husband Roy J. Shubert III, her daughter Dawn Campbell (Kevin), sons Eric Goodman (Cindy), Roy Shubert, IV (Chrystie), her brothers Buddy Hoffman (Belinda), Philip Hoffman (Laure), 7 Grandchildren, and 2 Great-Grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her sister Debbie Hoffman, 39 years to the day.

Sandra was a teacher with the St. Tammany Parish School System for 32 years. Sandra was teacher of the year in 2004- 2005 and ELK teacher of the year in 2005. Sandra loved every moment of her long teaching career as she loved each of her students as if they were her own children. Her time spent with Roy and their horses was precious to her as a life-long passion. Sandra loved everyone she met and would do anything for anyone. We have all been blessed to know and love Sandra, to experience her joy and love of life, and to look forward to the day when we will see her again.

Sandra was the best of the best !! Her love for teaching children , including my 3 girls at Abita Middle School was her passion and each child she taught with love and gave all she had to make them feel special . Sandra's passing is our loss ...Heaven's gain .. It was always a pleasure to be her class substitute teacher through the years ... as I would enter her class, I can still hear her say , " hey lady " and she would remind her students that I was her friend " now be on your best behavior ". I loved Sandra and treasured her as a friend .. God speed dear lady !! You have arrived at that Blessed Finish Line .

Sandra and I taught together for 33 years. We bonded the moment we met. There are so many stories to share. One of my favorites, which Sandra and I laughed over for years, was when Mrs. Risher told her to start trying to make her lesson plans as good as mine. Sandra taught me how to do them on the computer, how to use a spreadsheet, how to move spreadsheet items and things around, etc. She brought me her lesson plans all full of yellow marker and everything that was wrong with them. We compared our lesson plans and they were virtually the same except for page numbers. We started to laugh. Sandra taught me anything new that came in her meetings or something she had seen. I love you Sandra and will miss our 1:00 a.m. meetings on the internet. You are truly a great friend. No one who ever met you will ever forget you. To all of the Shuberts and relatives, my prayers are with you. Love, Nancy Hudson

Tomorrow I have to say my physical goodbye to my best friend. Everything had just fallen into place with us making all our future riding plans with our new horses we had finally chosen after 2 years of shopping for the perfect ones. We only had a few short days to enjoy them together before she went to heaven to reunite with her sister, mama, dad and others. I took the last picture of her, sitting on buster for the first time, should thought there would be many more to follow. She talk me so much about appreciating all the simple beauty of life, just looking at the clouds and sky and thanking God for the beauty around us that most take for granted. My bags were always packed waiting for her call, it didn't matter where, we just went and enjoyed every trip whether it was a cruise, Arizona, Florida, to Carolina to visit her late mom Mabel and brothers, and of coarse all our Texas trips to visit her family. I've been friends with Sandra and Roy for almost 30 years, even before they were married, watched the kids and then grandkids grow up, and always was a part of the whole extended family. There will never be another Sandra and I'm going to miss the hell out of her. I just want to thank God that he placed her in my life and gives me strength to live on. I pray for Roy and family to find some peace with their loss. I loved Sandra and I love all of you. God bless us all.

Thoughts and prayers to her family and friends. I was extremely blessed to have been her student teacher. I learned so very much from her.....and not just about teaching. She taught me life lessons. She taught me patience, compassion, and many things that college doesn't teach you. Even 12 or 13 years later, we still kept in touch and I still asked her for advice. Not only was she the greatest teacher ever, but she was one of the kindest people I've ever met. She will be so missed by so many!!! Love you, Mrs. Shubert!!

Hi I don't know if anyone remembers me but I grew up with Alyssa . I was also a student of Mrs. Shubert. I wanted to say that she had a big influence on my life . If I ever had problems or needed to talk she was there. She was defiantly apart of my growing up . She helped me view the world in a way I didn't think possible . I know that she would want the family to be happy and to know everything's alright . I know that she is in gods hands and I know she's already happy and 20 yrs old in heaven . I love Mrs.Shubert . I will always think of her and always remember and never forget. I'm sorry for everyone and I know y'all may know know me we'll but I love you too!!!! God bless you all.
