Cotton and Bobby Fletcher sat at my dinner table many times over the years while picking out pigs for the kids in Louisiana. I consider him a close friend even though I might not see him more than once or twice a year. He just made it so easy to be a friend. One story is that I was judging the state pig show there at LSU and Cotton obviously seen me and he said to his group of buddies loud enough so I could hear that "yes Beeler dropped our pigs off last night for the show" Then he turned and just cackled at me. Cotton was a wonderful man that made people happy. We need a lot more people in the world with his talents and gifts. Warren Beeler Caneyville, KY
