Jimmy, Lance, Stacey, Emily and the entire Rouquette family, things here won't be the same since Bonnie left for heaven ahead of us. She made so many things special, parties, dinners, Christmas, Easter egg hunts, football games, game nights and so much more. Our loss is heaven's gain. I love our close group so much. Just good to know we will all be together again one day. Love and miss you, Bonnie. Connie ad Rich

Bonnie, I always thought of you as the Matriarch of Lacombe - the one who mothered over everyone in, and around, your home, your school and your church. I remember how you were the force behind the Vacation Bible School at Mandeville Bible Church when it needed someone to start it up and keep it going. You did that faithfully for so many years. You and Jimmy fought a terrific fight against a mean disease for years and your courage and faith never wavered. The tougher that it got, the more you two dug in. I so admired you and your husband's resilience and determination. I will not forget you. And, you need not worry about Jimmy. We will care for him. This we know: while you may have departed from us a day, a week, a month, a year, or a few years prematurely, there is coming that Great Day. "For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord. " 1 Thess 4:15-17 I'm looking for that Day, Bonnie, when we will see you again, whole, strong, the picture of health and well being. That is how I will remember you.

Bonnie you were an amazing friend! Your strength and courage over the past few years has been an inspiration. I am so glad both of my children were in your kindergarten class, and I'm so glad you were able to dance at John-Pauls' wedding in November. Not a lot of people can say that their kindergarten teacher danced at their wedding. The Rouquette family is wonderful, and I'm truly sorry for their loss. Over the past few months every time I left I told you I loved you so I will tell you again, " I love you my friend."
