There will be many words spoken of Tammy in the days to come. There will be many memories shared from childhood, school days, and of her as a wife, mom, and nurse. We each will miss Tammy dearly but none so much as her husband and children. Prayers to each of you for peace within. Rest in peace childhood friend Tammy.

I will truly miss the cousin I grew up with when we were young I did not know her later on in life when we grew up as I moved away but I do have great memories of us being together in Port Sulphur. I am truly saddened by her passing on but I know she is with the greater power! And is no longer suffering anymore I love you Tammy
