Mr. Don was my son's flight instructor and mentor during high school. Ever easygoing and encouraging, his demeanor and confidence projected onto my son, and comforted this nervous Mom. I feel such a sadness for this tragic loss for his family, friends and students, such as my son. May God hold him close, and comfort those who loved him. Phyllis Dale Waring MD

I first met Donnie in high school and through several years, our paths intertwined. From hunting and fishing to the years we worked together at Covington PD. Donnie went to work for the Causeway and I went to Mandeville PD and our friendship continued. Many of my memories from those years involved Donnie, both happy and sad. My one and only trip out of the US was to Merida for Don and Silvia's wedding, a special time that I was privileged to share in. After I transferred to Shreveport, Don would always call me when he was in town on business and we would meet for dinner and relive old times and catch up on new ones. My prayers are with the Pechon family at this time. Please know that all of us who knew Don share in your pain and loss. With his easy smile and quick laughter, Don was truly one of the good guys and I am richer for having been a small part of his life. Robert Johnson - Shreveport

Love and prayers to the Pechon family. I have the best memories of childhood football and other sport games in the churchyard at St. Peter's with Donnie. Playing little league and birthday parties at his house and mine, what special times. Mr. Earl, Mrs. Audrey, Joey, Mary and Wayne, we were all blessed by Donnie's life. Silvia, I know you were blessed with a special man. My family and church continue to pray for peace and comfort for all of your family. Delos Thompson

Donny was my first cousin and lifelong friend. I spent many a steamy summer with he and his brothers terrorizing the neighborhood around Robinwood Ln on their bikes, sneaking thru the haunted house and tromping thru the woods to Wayside Park. I was honored to be at he and Sylvia's wedding in Merida, and survived the trip to Cancun with Alesh in his bug. Boating on the Tchefuncte, or just relaxing at Maude's place with a beer, he was always a kind and cheerful man who loved his family, doted on his kids. He loved to fly, and we must take some solace in that. He is and will be missed. I will remember him fondly for all my days. Graveside flowers respectfully arranged by Smokeguard Co. Don taught my grandson to fly even after he threw up in Don's Cessna 150 on his first flight and he got my son ready for his Private Pilot flight check, both years ago. He gave both of us our biennial flight reviews several times. He was always smiling and so easy going. When I saw about the accident Tuesday night, I was praying it wasn't the one he was flying. I'm so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with all of his family.
