I grew up in the Henkhaus's front yard, running and playing from 9:00am to 9:pm playing games like capture the flag, kick the can, flag/tackle football, basketball and on. Mary Jane an the entire Henkhaus clan are my family and we've shared the good, bad and indifferent. Much love to you all, and rest in peace Mary Jane.

I remember those days. Good time. I remember playing football and Jimmy Clark trying to tackle me. I just ended up dragging him. Lol. Mary Jane sure loved the sports and she was good at them. Mary Jane and family are special people and I know that she will be missed.God Bless you all.
