Thank you, I am comforted knowing she is in the arms our Lord's arms. I will miss her terribly but she no longer hurts.

Glenda Perron lit a candle in honor of Ruth.

I could always count on a grand smile from this beautiful person. She became part of my family when i married her nephew. But contened to be Aunt Ruth even after our divorce in 2000. You always lite up any room you came in. I know you are a bright light shining in heaven.. RIP sweet lady and shine bright so we can find you when we get there. Love you Aunt Ruth.

I loved having Ruth as a patient. She was never afraid to hold back, and always told me exactly what she thought! For two years she visited Northlake Christian School in Covington to warn high school students of the dangers of smoking. And she did this quite enthusiastically! My office and I will dearly miss her. Rick Casey, MD
