I'm very thankful for the memories I have of spending time with Aunt Ernestine. I remember when Rhonda and I were probably about 14 and a big group of us went to revival service at Love Baptist Church. After church we all went over to Aunt Cel's house to visit. I rode with Aunt Ernestine and them. When we were going down Hwy 21 and a black man came out of nowhere on a bicycle and went right in front of us. I can almost hear Aunt Ernestine say Spencer are you trying to kill us? Then she said you better slow down about the speed of a turtle. I loved that sweet lady so much. I remember going with Aunt Cel to MawMaw Jenkins house and we would all she'll peas.
