Dear Steve and Mary,I am so sorry to see that your mom has passed away, Steve. She wasn't much older than we are today when I first met her and your dad, Gus, at baseball and soccer games with John and Patrick. I enjoyed talking to her about Chicago and with your dad about the Cubs. What a lovely couple, and what joy they must have had being nearby as their grandchildren grew up. Dave and I were talking the other day about how we are our parents now. With parents like yours, we have had a very good role model. Sincerely, Jane and Dave Maher
