So sorry for your loss, my thoughts and prayers are with your family. I have the fondest memories with Miss Maddie and Mr. Grady. March of 2015 I still remember the phone call from Mr Grady and Miss Maddie so excited to come to Houston for my son's wedding that they could not eat their breakfast. Enjoyed their company for brunch the day after and lunch several weeks later in Louisiana. They always made me feel like I was a part of their family. I am so saddened to hear of this, my heart hurts for Ms. Maddie. The Lord will get you through this difficult time. God Bless this family. Elizabeth Stanga Cleaver Spring, Texas

Uncle Grady and Aunt Mattie are right up there - with just a few other people - as the reason I am a born again Christian. Their prayers for my life and the lives of more than we can all count...is why a lot of us trust in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! Aunt Mattie, I may not have been around much....but you and Uncle Grady have never been forgotten....and I have called your names up the throne room many times....thanking my Jesus that you both were a part of my life. I know you will miss Uncle Grady...how could you not....but be strong in the Lord....He will help you! I love you and will pray for strength for you and all your loved ones!
