We were out of town when Ken passed away or we would have come to the funeral. Our prayers and wishes of comfort to Lynn and their children are sent by this note. Ken was a diligent worker and good friend as we were associates in the New Orleans Section of IEEE. This was a good and active Section during the late 1900's. A good number of the faithful members are no longer with us. Your friends, Alma and Dale Caston

Dear Lynn, Jeff, Michelle & Richie, and grandchildren: Please know that you are in my prayers for peace and comfort as you mourn the loss of Ken. Each time I had the honor of speaking with Ken, he was always so pleasant. Ken was a kind, gentle man and I will certainly miss speaking with him. When I found out that Ken worked with my father, MANY years ago, at NOPSI (Ken being MUCH YOUNGER than my father), I asked my father if he remembered Ken from NOPSI. My Dad IMMEDIATELY said, "YES! I remember him! He was ALWAYS such a NICE young man!" May you all have nothing but wonderful, happy memories of your husband/father/father-in-law/grandfather. Sincerely, Donelle R. TAPS – Kenneth Lee Black Louisiana National Guard Day is done. Gone the sun. From the lakes From the hills. From the sky. All is well. Safely rest. God is nigh. Fading light. Dims the sight. And a star. Gems the sky. Gleaming bright. From afar. Drawing nigh. Falls the night. Thanks and praise. For our days. Neath the sun Neath the stars. Neath the sky As we go. This we know. God is nigh

It is the "Airman" In Honor of Kenneth Lee Black – Louisiana National Guard It's the AIRMAN, not the pastor/preacher, who has given us freedom of religion and worship. It's the AIRMAN, not the reporter, who has given us freedom of the press. It's the AIRMAN, not the poet, who has given us freedom of speech. It's the AIRMAN, not the campus organizer, who has given us freedom to assemble and demonstrate. It's the AIRMAN, not the lawyer, who has given us the right to a fair trial. It's the AIRMAN, not the politician, who has given us the right to vote, ensures our right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. It's the AIRMAN, who salutes the Flag, who serves beneath the Flag and whose coffin is draped by the Flag, who gives the protester the right to burn the flag. ETERNAL REST GRANT HIM O LORD, AND LET PERPETUAL LIGHT SHINE UPON HIM.

I met Ken when he worked with my husband at NOPSI/Entergy. Through that meeting, I also met Lynn and his wonderful family. Ken was a very special, caring, compassionate man. His avid enthusiasm of LSU sports gave him and my husband, Ronnie, many interesting hours of discussion. Ken was a great listener and always presented an upbeat attitude. He will be missed greatly by all who had the privilege and honor of knowing him. Helen M. Roberts

Last time Joan and I saw Ken was when we met in his and Joan's doctors office. He was there to check on relief for a hip pain and was in great spirits as usual. It was a pleasure working with him at NOPSI and the IEEE. He was a gentleman in every sense of the word. May he rest in peace, and we pray for him and the loved ones left behind.

I met Ken while working at NOPSI and we got along greatly at every function or meeting we jointly attended. A rare easy-going demeanor set him apart, and nothing was ever too much trouble for him to help me and anybody else. Unquestionably "A Man for Others." My privilege to have crossed his path. -- John Veca

I have known Ken since our time at New Covenant PC. We worked several volunteer projects over the years and he was always dependable and hard working. He was always in good spirits. We also shared a love of woodworking and birding. He was an avid Believer and wanted to learn about the Bible. Most of all, Ken was my friend! I will miss him. Duke Kemp
