I hadn't seen Aunt Betty since my Gramps, her brother James, died in 2003. But she found me on Facebook awhile ago and caught up on the photos and stories I posted about my 3 boys on Facebook often. She always had a kind word to say and she told me that she loved me and my kids often. When I was struggling, she also took the time to message me and tell me that I was a good mother. I hope she knew how much that meant to me. My thoughts are with everyone in her crazy, huge, wonderful family. I know she loved her family fiercely and she will be missed.

I wish to take a moment to offer the entire family my deepest condolence on your loss. My heart and prayers go out to each of you. I first met Ms. Betty at Lauren's baby shower. We sneaked to the back room and watched the LSU game on t.v. I do not know that she was so much watching the game as taking the opportunity to visit and share stories of the family, and it was a long conversation cuz she has a huge family. What a blessing to have had such a full life with so many people. Rest in peace Ms. Betty. Jean Raymond
