Mr. Exnicios, I had the honor of caring for your wife a few years back as her home health nurse. She had such a beautiful spirit that I know she did more for me than I could have ever done for her. To be in her presence was a gift. Please accept my condolences for your loss.

Dear Hugh, and the rest of the family, I awoke this morning to the dreadful news of Lee's passing, and will write a letter today, but wanted you to know that I am shocked and saddened beyond expression at the great loss of this great lady on Sunday. May the peace and solace of our precious Holy Spirit bring a measure of comfort to each one of you as your grief is somewhat assuaged by the sure knowledge that she is with our Father and Jesus. Sincerely, Mary Abell--
