Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Times like these make it so difficult to understand life and it's meaning- and sometimes we do not know where we can turn got real comfort. I have personally experienced this more times than any person should. I have found my greatest comfort in knowing that this is not the way it is supposed to be- and that God will soon wipe away our tears and eliminate death once and for all. . Eddie, we only met once at my sister's wedding over 25 years ago. Please accept condolences from me on behalf of my family. I am saddened beyond belief. Lisa was my 1st cousin. My Daddy and Aunt Geraldine were brother and sister. Thanks to FB 2 years ago, I was able to locate Randy and my sister Dina, my mother and myself met he and his wife in Bogalusa. We were looking forward to getting together with Lisa, but unfortunately, life happens and we never did. Just last week, Dina and I had decided that we weren't waiting anymore.....we planned to call Lisa. My heart is broken that we were too late. We had no idea that she was ill. Last Saturday made a year that we lost a cousin, on my Mom's side from the same type of brain tumor/cancer. We were with Mike through it all. That's part of the "life happens" along with me nearly losing the love of my life twice last year. I pray that she knows that we loved her no matter how many years have passed. I know that she is in God's loving arms along with Aunt Geraldine and Uncle Jim. Lisa was a Daddy's girl like me. I have many fond memories of my childhood with Lisa. They mainly involved the fact that she always let me play in her "make-up "area." It was a little girl's fantasy with every bit of Merle Norman make-up that was ever made!! Again, I treasure those days and again, pray that she knows how much she was loved. Angelique Bates Levy

Eddie: My prayers, and thoughts are for you and your family during this time. It was just 4 months ago I buried my friend Linda. Although she did not live long enough to enjoy the Gate House home you and Lisa built in Baton Rouge, I came to know just how much she loved it. I will do my best to keep it as pristine as the two of you did. I will never forget her wanting a picture sitting at the island. She was an inspiration to me as to her courage and determination to live life to the fullest whenever she could.....love to you and your family.....
