I just returned from an "off-the-grid" trip to Alaska and found the news of Aunt Mickey's passing. My heart goes out to you as you help one another through these tough days. To quote a borrowed rhyme, "Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow." I am so-o-o-o glad that Ann and I were able to make our trip to Louisiana last November to reconnect with you and update our childhood memories. Our evening at Meadow Wood Drive was a highlight and I know you all have many wonderful memories of time spent together there. Aunt Mickey was such a warm and gracious hostess. I'll treasure my memories of her as I keep the rest of you in my thoughts and prayers. Sue Bowers

Although distance separated our families for long periods of time while I was growing up, I had a chance to get to know my marvelous aunt during Grandma Chris's last years when we all were spending lots of time in Ithaca. I will never forget Aunt Mickey's and Uncle Jim's many kindnesses to me, especially when I was expecting my first child and trying to juggle a job and sick grandmother in Ithaca with a weekly commute to see my husband 120 miles away in Watertown.

Mickey and I spent many good times on the swing under her tree. She was also a surrogate grandmother to my two sons. We shared stories and laughter that will always stay in my heart and my sons. A sweet and loving angel on earth, you will be missed but always remembered in our hearts. Celeste, Taylor and Devin

Drew posted:

My "aunt" Mickey was only a teenager when I was born, closer in age to me than to my mother. And as I grew into a loud-mouthed brat, I never missed an opportunity to torment her. But for some mysterious reason, she was always kind to me. I remember even being allowed to accompany her (sometimes) on rides with her BIG boyfriend Jim, who was the tallest man I'd ever seen. As the years passed and my temperament improved (slightly) we became loving friends and have stayed so. She was one of the kindest, gentlest people I've ever known, always sensitive to others' feelings and always willing to help. I haven't fully accepted the fact that she's gone; it still seems inconceivable. So I can only imagine the shock my Uncle and cousins are experiencing. My heart goes out to you all. Aunt Mickey--I love you; I miss you; and I'll remember you always. Drew
