TAPS – MSG Clinton (Clint) LeRoy Lounsbury Louisiana National Guard Day is done. Gone the sun. From the lakes From the hills. From the sky. All is well. Safely rest. God is nigh. Fading light. Dims the sight. And a star. Gems the sky. Gleaming bright. From afar. Drawing nigh. Falls the night. Thanks and praise. For our days. Neath the sun Neath the stars. Neath the sky As we go. This we know. God is nigh

It is the "Soldier" In Honor of MSG Clinton (Clint) Leroy Lounsbury Louisiana National Guard It's the Soldier, not the pastor/preacher, who has given us freedom of religion and worship. It's the Soldier, not the reporter, who has given us freedom of the press. It's the Soldier, not the poet, who has given us freedom of speech. It's the Soldier, not the campus organizer, who has given us freedom to assemble and demonstrate. It's the Soldier, not the lawyer, who has given us the right to a fair trial. It's the Soldier, not the politician, who has given us the right to vote, ensures our right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. It's the Soldier, Who salutes the Flag, who serves beneath the Flag and whose coffin is draped by the Flag, who gives the protester the right to burn the flag. ETERNAL REST GRANT HIM O LORD, AND LET PERPETUAL LIGHT SHINE UPON HIM.

I wanted to express my deepest sympathy to Mamma Dorothy, Theresa, and Ray. I have known Clint and your wonderful family since 5th grade when I met you all in Arabi. It did not take long for me to feel like I was part of the family, from the many sleepovers, to dinners, to calling and making plans for birthday parties and other events. I am still in shock that Clint is gone, but I know without a doubt that Jesus is hugging him right now. Clint is an amazing person who had an eternal love for his country, and he will absolutely be missed by all who knew him and loved him. I recall having many laughs over how much I used to eat when visiting T and laughing too loud during the sleepovers. I also remember a ridiculous, but funny, discussion Clint and I had over which was better...a bath or a shower. Thank you so much for allowing me to be part of the family and getting to know Clint (Mr. Blue Eyes). May God Bless everyone in your family.

Uncle Clinton, Words cannot express the loss I feel. I cannot accept what has happen as I just spoke to you 10 days ago. I am truly hurt and heartbroken. I remember back when I was a young boy and you came to my mom's house on leave dressed in your uniform. I remember you gave me a ride on your motorcycle as I sat there on the gas tank. I remember your southern draw and always asked mom why you talked so funny. You always made me laugh and always had words of encouragement no matter the circumstance. You were there for me when the love of my life (my mom) passed and supported me through the hardship and pain. When I came to visit you and the family a few years ago it was like we just picked up where we left off. You woke me and my wife up at the crack ass of dawn with FIRE UP FIRE UP...I couldn't even get mad at you because you did it out of such playfulness.....I appreciate you showing me your state and all the things you had participated in whether it be putting a flag there or honor guard there...you were always involved in bettering the community. I will never forget the time you were calling bingo and my wife won and the smile that was on yours and her face. I will never forget the breakfasts at Cracker Barrel or the home you showed us that you lost in Katrina. With everything you have been through in your life with being put in foster care to serving in war, Hurricane Katrina..anything..you were always strong. I would only hope to have a fraction of the strength you have exhibited to me and the rest of the family. I love you with all my heart and I will truly truly miss you Unc ! Please rest in peace and say hi and give my mom a kiss for me while you're up there. I Love you UncPhil, Kim and Kids
