I met JoAnn at work. She was a lot of fun. We ate lunch together. She mentioned her family and friends many times. She loved where she placed her trailer because she liked feeding the animals that showed up outside. She talked about her garden. After she left I heard from her a few times and I called her a few times and left messages to call me but she never did. I know she had spots showing off what she had to sell and enjoyed that. I told everyone at work about her passing. We all missed her. Rest in peace JoAnn.
