We are truly saddened by the loss of this dear sweet lady. We shared many memories together. We have laughed and cried and sang many songs together. We ate a lot of food and talked for hours. How many times did we and our kiddos make the walk across the field, too many to count. I always knew that I could count on you. I love your kids like my own, and you loved mine the same. I promise you that I will keep on loving them. I will think of you often and always with a smile. Hugs are boys and tell Ty I miss him. I love you, Becky
