I had the privilege of working with Jason for the past 9 years. He was such a motivated salesperson and always on the go. However when he did take a minute to chat, the happiness you felt when he spoke of his wife and son was so sweet and genuine. He will be missed terribly. I pray for his family and friends. Rest in peace.

I have been blessed knowing Jason over the years. He was most definitely one of "my boys". He had the most wonderful smile... a contagious laugh.... a personality that was larger than life... and gave the best hugs. He was a true and loyal friend to my son Chris for many years. Jason was a part of our family. I was so very pleased to see him finally meet the love of his life and start a family. He never seemed happier. It is with a very heavy heart that I now have to say goodbye to such a wonderful young man. Saying I am sorry does not even come close to what I am feeling. I share in the profound grief of losing him so suddenly....so soon. It is not for us to understand God's plan. I do know that there is now another angel in heaven watching over us all. My prayers are with his family, his friends, and all who are suffering. Jason will always live in our hearts.
