Laura Lloyd Kliebert posted:

I'm very sorry to hear of Mrs. Carol's passing. She used to work with my Mother, Marie Lloyd, at the Covington Library and I believe they were friends, however so different, Mrs. Carol was quiet speaking and always kind and my Mother was a little loud and firm. Quite a contrast, but they laughed often. I'm sure my Mom was waiting for Mrs. Carol at the gates of Heaven calling her name loudly and Mrs. Carol was probably embarrassed by the commotion. My sincere condolences to Mrs. Carol's family and friends. She was a sweet and gentil lady.
