The long time friends of Margie's known as "Cricket Circle" will not chirp as sweetly without Margie who was always positive, loving and upbeat. Margie was a great communicator who let us know where she stood on Religion, Politics and Moral Issues. I regret that I can't make the funeral in Covington to give hugs to Bill, Billy and Connie. Your loss is great, and I grieve for you. With love, Jackie Elliott

Mrs Rose was my stable mom during the Shall days. We had so many good times. I was glad I visited a few years back after so many many years. Frances encouraged me to call about a month ago. I am thankful I did. I told Mrs Rose I would see her in March, but now will need to wait a little longer. See you on the other side of glory.
