Philip was an employee of the Louisiana Department of Agriculture & Forestry as a Wildland Firefighter. He returned to work seasonally for another ten years after his original retirement for a total of over 40 years. He was the type of employee that may not exist in today's world. He was dedicated and had initiative like none other. He loved his family and his smile will be missed. As a young forester I always knew that when Dosie asked me a question like he often did, I had better know that he probably already knew the answer, he was just checking to see if I knew the answer.

My condolences to this great family. They're two memories that I have of Mr. Dosie. The first one is of walking his place as a boy and having him identify every tree in the area. Man he could spend all day talking about trees. The second was of a fishing trip that Wade and I made where we had caught some garfish. We had about three fish about 60-70 pounds each, Dosie went and got a little bitty rod and reel and had us take pictures of him next to the fish. He wanted to show AC what he had caught. We took the picture and he had the biggest, slyest grin on his face. I'll always cherish the time that I spent with him and his family. Best wishes in this difficult time. Todd Oalman

My deepest condolences to this family. I knew him years ago when I was young. He was such a kind man. I remember his son Wade, showing me stacks of books and reading material! I thought to myself "He must be pretty smart, that's a lot of information!" And he had watched a soap opera (which I thought was funny) But, one thing sticks out in my mind, he'd walk around the yard pruning his trees. Well, it was around Easter I went up to a tree,,ripped off a limb (for what reason, I have no idea) probably to jokingly smack Wade with it, not realizing that he just got finished "pruning" that tree! Wade looked at me with his eyes as big as quarters telling me "Oh, when my dad sees this he' gonna flip!" I didn't realize and was ignorant to the fact that I wasn't suppose to do that. I didn't know his actual occupation at that time. Well, I called him "Boof" I walked up to him and apologized for messing up his tree, he tried to act like he was upset but he was way to nice to get angry at me. At Easter, he and his wife handed me a full Easter basket anyway after I messed up his tree!!! Wally and Wade and Mrs. Lelia and extended family. I am sorry for your loss..... prayers lifted.
