I'm so sorry to hear about Connie passing away. I used to help with bingo on Thursday mornings. I would always try to get Connie to join us for bingo - one day she came and she won some games - she was so excited. She knew everything and anything about what was going on at the nursing home. She's going to be missed - the residents and their families loved her and so did the employees. I'm sure she has already gotten the job of "Heavens Greeter" - God bless you Connie - Rest In Peace. Connie was surely a very lovely, sweet and a friendly person. We will miss seeing her walking down the hall and her coming to visit our Mom. We now have an angel who is looking down from Heaven to watch over her family and friends. With Caring Sympathy in Your Loss, Miss Cecilia and Family, Room 316 A Forest Manor

Barbara and I are missing you already. We won't b able to hear your walker coming down the hall so we can get a report on Dophy (Dorothy) and already knowing that you would b saying oh she alright she did good today (we're gonna miss that). And we won't be getting those little visits after dinner giving a minute by minute of what happened at the Home, (we're gonna miss that)). We're gonna miss you being there to help us with Mom and be her voice when she couldn't speak for herself or to just come in and visit when she motioned for you to come in and sit. We're gonna miss you being there to tell us Bro. Nettles came by today when all Mom could say was that man, or that Mom wouldn't take her bath or mess today. Oh how we're gonna miss those sweet reports that we looked forward to getting each day. It is selfish of Barbara and I to have such broken hearts over your passing when we should be rejoicing because you have no more pain or suffering. We loved and appreciated you so much. Mom can't express how much she's gonna miss you, but I'm sure she feels a little jealous that she can't be

Connie knew everyone at Forest Manor and always had the latest updates. I called her the official welcoming committee. She loved to sit near the front door and never met a stranger. She often directed me to someone who needed some cheer. I will miss her amazing personality and spirit of caring. As you join the great cloud of witnesses may you continue to be a welcoming presence for all God's children. Peace be with you Connie. Rev. Daniel Vanek, Chaplain St. Tammany Parish Hospital
