I consider it a privilege to write a brief tribute to my cousin, Leatte. We were friends while at Covington High School, and also at First Baptist Church, Folsom. Leatte was always a gracious, friendly, wholesome girl and I enjoyed teaching some of her wonderful grandchildren in my Bible class at our church. Her husband, Clarence, loved her dearly and theirs appeared to be a stable, satisfying marriage. She will be missed. I'm praying the the comfort of the Holy Spirit will help her dear family through these days, weeks and months without her. Sincerely, Mary Core Abell

Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. When I think of Mrs. Leatte, I remember the days she and Mr. Clarence would invite us to swim after ball games. One time in particular, I had a cast on my right hand and could not swim. She saw that I was missing out and they let me cut my cast off. In a matter of minutes we cut the cast off and in the pool I went. Mrs. Leatte had the biggest heart and cared deeply for all of us boys. She will be greatly missed.
