We met Irene and Rodney in 1977 through the Crescent City Corvette Club. We became close friends enjoying many social and family events. Irene was a caring and loving person, always looking at the good side of the situation. We stayed in touch after we moved to Texas. Seeing each other when ever we could. When we decided to move back to N.O, Irene was a big help with advising us in our renovation of our house and selling our Dallas home. She was a Special Person and Friend. Our condolences go out To Rodney, Cori and Family. She surely will be missed but not Forgotten. RIP IRENE
