We loved Amy so much. Her and Paul were always awesome to hang out with and over our years of friendship we never forgot how funny she was - I will never forget the endless printer jokes and meat fests at TDB (our favorite spot together) One of my favorite memories were when she and Boz helped surprised me for my 30th birthday, she made me laugh all night. We'll miss you so much Amy..-Carly and Matthew Dartez

Dearest Dale and Becky, Words can't describe how we will all miss your beautiful "baby girl" Amy. She looked like she was the "life of the party" with her gorgeous smile and beautiful face. You must be so very proud of her and all of her accomplishments. Her memory will be kept in our hearts forever. Love y'all, Glory, Olden and Conner.

Amy was a beautiful young lady who lived life to the fullest every day. It is a very sad time for all Postmasters and Retirees who knew her and got to hear updates from Dale on how she was doing. We have lost an angel but she is now in heaven with the Lord. May God Bless Dale, Becky, Chip, and Paul and the other family members during this most difficult time. We thank Our Father in heaven for having been a part of her life. Jim and Marie Price

Amy and I took courses at LSU together, and she always managed to make going to class fun. We were determined to sit together for every class, and even graduation. She was such a wonderful friend and a great study buddy, and I am going to miss her a whole lot

I had the pleasure of meeting Amy while we were both receiving treatment at Mary Bird Perkins last summer. I remember how nice her dad and fiancé were and how open Amy was about her journey. We kept in touch over the year and she gave me some amazing advice on how to deal with the side effects! I will miss her telling me to keep kicking MS's butt. She's given me a lot of advice but she's been a great example of how not to let a disease get the best of your life. I will miss our talks Amy, but I know you're finally getting the well deserved rest.

I never was honored by meeting Amy in person but feel like I know her from the way her dad "Dale" spoke of her with pride during his travels with the NAPUS Pistmadter organization. Always loved to hear him tell about what Amy would put in his suitcase for him to find when she was little. Prayers for family during this time of remembering ...Roger Weaver

Unfortunately, I never met Amy. But I know she was special because all our children are. And I know she was super special because she managed to stay positive through the endless tests and treatments, to take it all as a bump in the road before she got to speed up again. My heart is breaking for the family, but I know she's out of pain and treatments and flying down that road again. Dale and Becky, you will know she is still with you by strange little messages she'll manage to send you - keep your hearts open and you will realize she's still very close.

My first meeting with Amy was at New Iberia SOC NAPUS conference. I went to swim and Amy was the only one in the water swimming. She was about the same age as one of my daughters back home on Oklahoma. She asked if I knew her Daddy and once I said yes, she splashed me until Becky and Dale told her time to get out of the water. All smiles and giggles. She was full of little girl dreams and looked up to hero (Dale) with eyes filled with awe. Will miss Becky and Dale's Monkey. Fly high Amy.

Although I never met Amy in person, I watched her grow up through our NAPUS family. She was one of our children and we delighted in stories her dad shared about her. My heart is broken and I cannot offer enough sympathy in words to provide adequate comfort to all of you. I cannot know what the pain of losing a precious child feels like. I can only hope that you are able to someday smile at the joyous memories of good times shared together.
