Mary Cantey DeLatte

SEP 5, 1941 - SEP 17, 2017

Mary Cantey DeLatte passed away on Sunday, September 17, 2017 at her home in Abita Springs, LA. She was born on September 5, 1941 in New Orleans, LA to Edward Cantey, Jr. and Frances May Blanchard.

Mary was married to her beloved husband, the late Dennis Leo DeLatte, for 35 years. She was the loving mother of Tim DeLatte (wife Sarah) and Mark DeLatte (wife Dana). Mary was the proud grandmother of Charlotte and Isabelle. She was the sister of Edward Cantey, III. (wife Karen) and Mercedes LaCoste (husband Milton).

Mary was a meticulous, patient, artistic and fiercely independent woman, who was always “getting ready, to get ready”. Most of all, she loved God and cherished every opportunity to allow His love to shine through her. “God knows every hair on your head and he loves you warts and all.” - Mary DeLatte

Please accept our most heartfelt sympathies for the loss of Mary. We first met Mary while attending Church of the King in Mandeville and became friends through the Deaf Ministry at the church many years ago. We also knew Mary through the Prayer Ministry at the church and we often prayed together. We will miss Mary's wonderful laughter, her beautiful her smile, and her quite wisdom. She will be deeply missed by all those who were privileged to know her and call her friend. May your heart find peace and comfort knowing that she is with our Lord and with all those family members and friends who have gone before her. Bruce and Debbie Bonar
