My condolences to Pat and her family. I voice a lot of what has been already said. I only met Joe a few times but was lucky enough once to spend some time with him at a Dinner talking about LOUISIANA and his beloved Pat. He was a true dashing "Southern Gentleman". May God keep you in his loving arms.

My condolences to Patricia for her loss of a Great Gentleman. While I only knew him for a few years he was always someone with whom I felt as comfortable as though I had known him for much longer. I only wish that were possible. I'm sure that he'll bring joy to those in Heaven. I hope there are golf courses up there!
