Kathy was my dear friend and roommate in college at UW-Stout. She was also a bridesmaid at my wedding. Her daughter Sarah and my daughter Emily were the same age. Unfortunately, we lost Emily in 1989 to SIDS and Kathy and her sister Jean attended the funeral. I will never forget Kathy's infectious laugh and sense of fun! We shared so many good times. We lost touch through the years but I have always remembered her as a best friend. My heart is breaking for all of her family. She has left this earth far too soon. She is with the angels now. I am grieving along with you all. My sympathy to all of you. Love, Kimberly Ladwig Askeland

We are so very sorry to hear this news. Kathy was such a joyful, kind person. We are so happy that our paths crossed so many times in our lives. We have such fond memories of Kathy and you cooking us steaks in your Chicago apartment, Tom. And then you and Kathy coming to see us in our place in Milwaukee. We had a great family visit in Lafayette with our kids. Jennifer just loved her time with Kathy; Kathy was a fast friend. We will hold you in our thoughts and prayers. Patrick and Jennifer Ritter
