I think of Mr. Rich often and cherish all of the times that we spent together performing in the talent show, going to baseball games and on other outings, playing bingo at Brookdale and the last dances we shared at each of the senior club dances. He was a sweet man and a good friend and he couldn't have had more love and support than you all offered him. You were always so truly devoted. I'll be thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers.-Danielle LaBorde
