Rose Marie Costello Czerny

JAN 29, 1946 - MAR 6, 2018

ROSE MARIE CZERNY (COSTELLO), age 72, of Madisonville, LA, formerly of Pittsburgh, PA went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 in Lakeview Hospital.

Born on January 29, 1946 to James A. and Ebba S. Costello. Beloved wife of 45 years to Charles F. Czerny. Proud mother of Heather Lynn (Scott) Robert and Charles David (Lacy) Czerny. Loving grandmother to Kyleigh Rose and Olivia Grace Robert; Gia Christine, Sage Elizabeth, and Reese Addison Czerny. Sister to Kathleen (Valentine) Rud and John (Madeline) Costello. Also survived by nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Rose was a graduate of the 1964 class of South High School (Pittsburgh) where she graduated in the top 10 of her class. After graduation, she went on to earn a degree from Duffs Business School. Rose enjoyed and embraced life to the fullest, especially spending time with her family and five beautiful granddaughters. Rose's high energy and zest for life will be missed by all who knew her.

Funeral services will be held at St. Anselm's Catholic Church (306 St. Mary St, Madisonville, LA 70447) on March 15, 2018 with a memorial gathering from 5-6 pm immediately followed by a Liturgy of the Word funeral service. The E. J. Fielding Funeral Home in Covington, LA has assisted in the final arrangements, and the family invites friends and family of Rose to sign the online Guest Book at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

In lieu of flowers, please have a toast with good friends and family in Rose's honor on St. Patrick's Day as she would consider that to be the best possible sendoff for a lifelong Irish Catholic!

When I was asked if I would like to write something to be read at the service for Rose, I thought "What can I say about this beautiful woman that people didn't already know"? As I pondered this question it came to me that I would like to share with everyone what it was like to grow up with Rose. Rose was the big sister and she took that role seriously. She was a leader and I was her follower, although sometimes that leadership didn't take us in the right direction. Like when we would go to the junk yard to climb on the old cars, or to the sand and gravel company to climb the mounds of sand, or the railroad tracks to look for little metal crosses, or down the river bank to play in the river. We couldn't understand why mom didn't want us at these fun places. We lived across the street from a big playground. Some would say this was great, but it had its disadvantages. Like when we wanted to go play with our friends and mom said we had to take our baby brother with us. This didn't stop Rose though, not one bit. She took her belt off and strapped him into a swing so we could play. It worked well for awhile until mom walked out the front door. Then there was the time when we were again given the job of watching John. Rose thought it would be a good idea to put him in the back of a Gimbels furniture delivery truck so we could play. Who walked around the corner? Mom, of course. All in all we survived our childhood and as the years passed she not only was my big sister but my rock and my best friend. She was my Maid of Honor and took the time to hand make my beautiful wedding gown. She was Godmother for each of my sons when they were born. I knew that if anything would ever happen to me I wanted Rose to raise my boys. She taught me to drive and do a 3-point turn so I would pass my driver's test. Although Chuck's job forced them to relocate to other states we remained close. If I needed advice or just a chance to talk I knew all I had to do was pick up the phone and Rose would be on the other end. When the time came for me to let her go I wasn't ready. But God had other plans. He saw that it was time to end her suffering and take her home. I know we will be together again, but until then there will be a huge void in my life and an emptiness in my heart that can't be filled. Rest in peace my beautiful sister. Until we meet again I will love you to infinity and beyond. Kathy (Costello) Rud

OK Rosie. Many relatives, friends and your family have celebrated St Patrick's Day to your memory with a toast. In many cases several toasts of Irish whiskey. In a few cases way too many toasts!! I know you thought that was great, but can you send down to us a few blessings to make the morning after headaches go away?
