Juanita and I met through Diane. She and my son, Harold, attended school together where they were in the same circle of friends. Then my grandson, Dylan, and her grandson, Dalton, became friends. She was a sweet, warm, wonderful woman. She gave of herself from the heart. She will be missed. Father in Heaven please send your Spirit on this family in their time for f grief to comfort them.

Juanita and I met at work when we were both 19 at Boatmens National Bank in St Louis. We ate many lunches together and shopped at all the department stores in downtown St Louis. In the spring and summer we brought our lunch and walked down to the Mississippi River and watched the workers build the famous St Louis Arch on the bank of the river. We watched the cranes lift each piece of the arch in to its place. Found memory. Carol (Weiss)Parker
