Twenty years ago we opened the B&N in Metairie together. We climbed the ladder together and built our careers. Marne was always a good friend, a solid co-worker and a kind soul. The world is a little darker today. Miss you, dear.

Marne will be sadly missed. She was one of my first friends at BN when I started. Knowledgeable and so nice to make someone feel at ease. I saw her thru the years and she still continued to smile and be so nice. She lived a beautiful life with such a good heart. Sending prayers to all of you. Glenda Moret.

Thanks, Glenda. She enjoyed her years at B&N and all of her B&N family. She valiantly fought her cancer for over 8 years, until she couldn't go any more. I loved her and was blessed with 24 years as her life partner. I hope you are doing well. God bless you.

I had met Marne a few times at Barnes and Noble conferences, just passing in the hall or at the airports. After Katrina, I went into the Mandeville store and when Marne saw me she gave me the biggest hug. It caught me by surprise and brought tears to my eyes. I always remember that moment when I think of her. Thanks Marne!!

Thanks for your friendship through the years. Marne was such a private person and didn't want people to see her as she struggled with her cancer the past year or so. She fought hard and wanted to stay with me and Olivia, but God had other plans. I will always love and miss her! Thank you for coming to her Celebration of Life; it meant a lot to me.

I was blessed to be Marne's partner for 24 years. The last 8+ years were difficult times while she fiercely battled ovarian cancer. Marne didn't have a lot of friends, but those of you that she counted in that number know that she was the most loyal, honest and devoted friend. Thank you for the joy and happiness that each of you brought to her life. Besides me, Marne's greatest love was our granddaughter, Olivia. She and Marne shared a truly special and wonderful relationship! I will be sure that Olivia never forgets her Aunt Marne. I will continue to love her until God calls me home and I join her in Heaven. God bless all of you!!

Marne and I shared many Cancer support stories...Mine was minor and hers was not. I always admired her courage and stamina to fight this battle. Now I am happy that she is a peace. Attached is a picture of something Marne gave me ...I will think of her every time I try to make a putt. God bless all of her friends and family. Carol

Our family has been so blessed by having Marne in our lives. Marne was such a great role model for our daughter Olivia to look up to. She was a strong, courageous and loving woman. I truly enjoyed seeing the love her and Olivia shared together. Olivia called her Aunt Marne, but she was way more than that to her, she was her grandmother. I went to high school with Marne but didn't really know her til our trip to Europe after graduation, hosted by Foreign Study League. What a blast we had! I've very fond memories of shared meals of cheese, a baguette & wine at several fountains & historic steps; sneaking back after curfew on the Jan Bach in Amsterdam & somebody in our group getting stuck in the porthole; hiking in Austria & drinking from a pristine Mtn stream; viewing the Southern Cross in the night sky... those & many more memories I'll treasure forever.

Marne and I both worked in market research (me in Chicago and her in New Orleans). We were friends over the phone YEARS before we met in person. We kept in touch after she left the industry. Some of my favorite cookbooks came from her time at Barnes and Noble - one actually fell on my foot the other day...and I opened it only to see a beautiful photo of Marne and Angie and a handwritten note. She will be truly missed.

Marne was one of my managers at the Mandeville Barnes & Noble when it first opened. What a fantastic time we all had as a team putting the store together and introducing the Northshore to the B&N experience. She and I bonded instantly and always shared laughs on our shifts together. Marne was such a funny person, and I enjoyed our times together tremendously. She was a genuinely kind person, so sincere and so easy to talk to about anything. I appreciated her being so patient with me as a high school senior working my first "big girl" job. She trusted me even as a young adult to be a lead bookseller, and I learned a lot from her about how to be an approachable, compassionate and respected leader. I have enjoyed keeping in touch with her over the years whether on Facebook or stopping in at B&N when I was in town. She always gave me a big bear hug and made time to get caught up with me. Marne is one of my all time favorite people, and I know we are all going to miss her greatly.
