I am so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. He was always so polite to me when I would see him at Aquistapace. I missed him when he left Aquistapace - the store never felt the same when I entered it! Rest in peace!

I met Jim in 2003 when we first moved to Covington. He was one of the nicest people I've ever met. He was one of the few people in this world that really made a difference with his customers. He knew us all by name. Every time I walked through the doors at Aquistapaces, he would call me by name and tell me hello. His raucous laugh is something I'll never forget, nor his vivacious sense of humor. I miss him very much and I am so very sad that he is gone, much too soon. All my love and prayers to Jim and his family. He was one heck of a guy. Catherine Pilie
