I had the pleasure of working with Blake at Citicorp Industrial Credit back when the oil and gas industry was booming. Of course, I became a friend; everyone was a friend with Blake. He spoke lovingly of you, Patty, and he adored little Blakley, his only daughter at that time. Blake was ever so charming, always dressed meticulously, his hair always coiffed, his desk was always in order with everything placed precisely. Blake had an irresistible personality, and his wit was ever so quick. I am so very sorry for your loss. Blake was a great friend, so I know he had to be a wonderful husband and father. I am grateful to have known him. My sincere sympathy to all, Terri Burke
