Joanne Jemison Gallinghouse

NOV 8, 1953 - MAY 24, 2018

Joanne Jemison Gallinghouse of Madisonville, LA passed away on Thursday, May 24, 2018. She was born on November 8, 1953 in New Orleans, LA to Edward F. Jemison and Rosalie Centanni Jemison.

Joanne is survived by her mother Rosalie C. Jemison and her brothers Michael A. Jemison (Becky) and Eddie Jemison (Laura). She is also survived by her nieces Terri Thornhill (godchild) and Daisy Jemison; her nephews Sean Jemison and Jasper Jemison (godchild); and a host of aunts, uncles, and numerous cousins who will miss her dearly.

Joanne is preceded in death by her husband Walter William Gallinghouse, Jr. and her father Edward F. Jemison.

A native of New Orleans, Ms. Gallinghouse attended Ferncrest School, and then graduated from Chapelle High School with honors. After graduating from high school, she went on to earn a bachelor's degree in psychology from Louisiana State University. Joanne later continued her education and earned a master's degree in business from Southeastern University.

Joanne was the owner of Gallinghouse Marketing & Creative, publisher of Sophisticated Woman magazine and co-founder of the Three Rivers Art Festival.

Ms. Gallinghouse was active in business and community organizations, serving on the boards of the St. Tammany West Chamber of Commerce, the Youth Service Bureau, St. Tammany Economic Development Foundation, SLU Alumni Association, Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra Northshore Advisory Board, Habitat for Humanity St. Tammany West, the Covington Three Rivers Art Festival and others.

Ms. Gallinghouse was recognized as a New Orleans CityBusiness Woman of the Year in 2001. She was also named the St. Tammany Leadership Alumna of the Year in 2012.

Dear Momma Rose and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. I just can't believe Jo is gone. I deeply regret that I was unable to attend the services but please know that Jo and your whole family have been in my heart and prayers. Jo was an amazing woman to work for. I have so many wonderful memories and experiences from my days at Gallinghouse and so glad I had the privilege to be one of her Gals back in the day. She was always full of energy and ideas and a wonderful person to be around. She brought out the best in those around her. Jo's creativity was infectious! I loved our breakfast meetings at Judice's and our Jazzercise evenings and moving into the amazing office your husband designed. Wishing you love and prayers of healing,

I am so grieved to hear of this. Joanne and I are cousins. We found out by accident when we were in high school. Her maiden name was Jemison. This was my daddy's middle Name and his mother's maiden name. Not sure we ever got the particulars. She gave me a kitten in ninth grade that we had for years and years. We called each other "cuz". We reconnected with Facebook several years ago. I loved her sweet spirit. She shone even in adversity. I will miss her. ❤️ M

Dear Rose and family: So sorry to hear of your loss. I was unable to attend the funeral services because I had to work. Joanne had a beautiful spirit and accomplished so much in her lifetime. She had so many gifts and talents which she shared so freely. I want you to feel my arms around you, now, at this time of great sorrow. Know that I am praying for Joanne, and each of you. Rose, you especially, will be in my thoughts and prayers, May Joanne rest in the arms of God and be surrounded by the heavenly choir of angels. I Love You Always! Daisy Thom

Jo and I were really good friends many years ago. I met her and her husband Walt when she started Tri-Focal Advertising. I wrote many articles for the firm and she and I became very close friends. From water skiing on the Tchefuncte River to working on Covington's Bicentennial celebration, I have many fond memories of Joanne. My heart goes out to you Mama Rose. With love, Anne Favret

I loved our trips with Auntie Ann especially the trip to Biloxi. Both of us sitting in the back of Anns' big Caddy pretending to smoke cigarettes. Getting to our hotel and jumping on the beds. Then getting our hair done in the beauty parlor in the hotel and then going swimming only an hour later. You could play the piano really well. I remember all the times I sat and watched you practice. You and I lost our husbands so close in time together. It was a shared heartache. I got solace from our talks. I am going to miss you dear Cuz. Say hello to Walter and Ray for me. Lorraine

I can't believe Joanne is gone. Such a beautiful, vibrant spirit should not have been taken from her loved ones so soon. She was beautiful, intelligent, energetic and so much fun. She was blessed with a great sense of style and was always perfectly turned out. Joanne and her Walter were the two most valiant people I have ever known. My husband Bruce and I were privileged to watch them fight their battle against CLL here in Houston. They were so gallant! Walter could not had a better ally in his fight than Joanne. Rest in peace, dear Jo. I know that you and your beloved Walter are together again where there is no pain and no sorrow.
