Diane D Kramer sent a virtual gift in honor of Joseph.

Al and I have been acquainted with Joe and his wife for many years. We lost touch after moving to Alabama, but Al still remembers Joe fondly as an Olympia member as well as a genuinely nice person. He had a wonderful life, and will be remembered with fondness. Al and Diane Kramer

I am saddened to learn of another tiger passing. I am glad that I had the chance to reunite with Joe at our 50th reunion of our 63" State Football Championship and 64" class reunion. Holy Cross, Southeastern, and the insurance industry were our mutual interests of the past. Our most important common interest was always our love for Jesus Christ. I give my love and prayers to Joe's entire family and his close friends. I know that because he was such a great man, husband, father, and Christian, he will be missed by many. God bless and peace. Cassie, I was so sorry to hear of your loss of a great husband and father. I enjoyed playing golf with Joe whenever we got a chance to play. I remember Joe from the days he was in the Eye Opener Kiwanis club and his work with the Rich Mauti foundation. I send you our condolences on this very tough day for you and your family. It is really upsetting to hear of Joe's death. Phyllis and I have known how hard Cassie and he have fought this illness. We have always admired their way and purpose in their family and personal lives. We know that he is now in the right place. He has always been the top example of what a Holy Cross Man is. Now, Joe, since people use to think we were brothers, I will now admit that you were better looking! God Bless You!

On behalf of Joe's Beau Chene golfing buddies we send our heartfelt sympathies to Cassie and family. We always enjoyed it when Joe joined us for lunch and golf even when he was not feeling so well. His optimism was contagious. I grew to know Joe well from our service to Mary Queen of Peace. He was greatly respected by all who served with him, including me. I will treasure my last conversation with him just days before his passing. His was a life well lived. Jack Leber

First, I am very sorry for the loss of a wonderful husband, father and to me and many others, friend. Joe touched the lives of many people, and regardless of his personal circumstance, he was always someone who was upbeat and congenial. I pray that his family and friends are and will be comforted in this time until they see him in the next.

Dear Cassie, Nicole and Roxanne: I'd like to share these two photos of Joe from Southeastern. I don't think Joe ever did anything halfway, especially the practice of his faith and his loyalty to his church. I pray for comfort for you and your whole family. -Dennis Calkins

If everything ended with our death, earthly life would be without hope or comfort. But God does not allow us to vanish into eternal nothingness. God unites human beings in love and surrounds them with His own love. He does not destroy what He has created but brings it to perfection. May the Lord blanket Cassie, Roxie, Nicole, and the grandchildren with his comforting peace.

So sorry to read of the passing of my old friend and companion from many breakfasts at Mande's Restaurant. From playing basketball against each other at Holy Cross and Jesuit and being friends in Madeville for years when I lived in Beau Chene, I treasure the New Years's Eve parties on the lakefront with the girls at Mandeville High School. I will pass the sad news on to Carola who I will see in July. Really miss you guy, sorry I hadn't seen you in so long. Peter Michell
