My Uncle Mark: Had the best grin ever (just a little mischievous) Great example of how marriage is hard work but achievable. He and Aunt Cyndee were just a few months shy of 40 years married. (I got to be the flower girl in their wedding.) Gave me my CB handle when I was four (Candy Snatcher 🕷️👉) Had the awesome "green spider" tattoo (I think he was the first person I knew with one) Loved his family fiercely (especially those grand babies) Even though I only got to see him once every few years I truly looked forward to it and his big hug. Prayers, hugs, and kisses to my Aunt Cyndee and cousins. I love you all and am so terribly sorry for your loss.

It was such a shock hearing the news of Mark's passing. Growing up our families were always together. We thought of them as family. Mark was always smiling, cracking a joke or playing a trick on someone. He will be missed by many. RIP Mark. Cheryl
