Uncle Mackie, This is a belated tribute to your being a wonderful uncle. With 10 years age difference, I ended up being the youngest of the Southport gang living with grandma, mom, dad, Charlie, Melvin, Gerald, and you in that little 3-room shanty in "The Parish", i.e. Jefferson. I was too young to have memories of back then, 1948, but I always felt a bond between us as we both grew up through the later years... Your love and jovial ways always lifted us up during family visits... And your special love for my mom, Margaret, 8 years older, always came through, as she helped you dress for school, fixed family meals, and just loved you to death... Grandma was so busy with working, trying to keep the family together, that you kids had to grow up fast... And, I'll never forget your last word's to me in 2017, when you yourself were sick and hardly able to talk, asked me... "How's your mama?"... Uncle Mackie... I'm now (2023) happy to say; You and Mom, and now Marie, are together again, not in the Parish, but in Paradise with Jesus! Love, Walter Hingle

I can honestly say that in my entire life, I have never met a more kind, honest, giving, loving man. He was such a huge part of my childhood/early adulthood up to Katrina. Hands down my favorite neighbor, always happy even after a long, hard day at work. I have just heard of his passing and it has hit me extremely hard. I wish I would've been able to be there for you all. I send you all my strength, prayers, and unending love. Marie, please, please call me..... I love you all so very much. 😭😭

Never knew anyone like uncle Mackie. He was so gregarious, affectionate, and easy to love! My memories of him are all so sweet and they'll be in my heart until the day we meet again. Prayers for the family and for all of us that adored this wonderful man! What a reunion going on in Heaven right now. If you listen close, you can hear the laughter!
