Lorraine Brockhaus Guidry

FEB 28, 1941 - SEP 20, 2018

In a very peaceful death, we have lost our earthly best friend and the “rock” of our family, but heaven has gained a new angel. Lorraine is now receiving her reward of eternal life with God, Jesus and our Mother Mary accompanied by all the angels and saints. She loved us all so devotedly and so deeply and loved so many others whether they were strangers, friends, students or parents. We thank God for our constant and our continued prayer warrior and for this beautiful blessing of a lady who befriended anyone who needed a friend or just needed a charitable, kind ear. She touched so many lives and the beautiful memories of her will live on forever in our hearts and minds. She will be so severely and deeply missed until we reunite again.

Lorraine lived a joyful, Christ-filled life and inspired many people in her personal life and in her business life. She spent her life from the early years thoroughly enjoying the art of dance and dancing her heart away. At two years old, her mother enrolled her in dancing, under the direction of Marie Laurent Lasseigne, where she would stay well into adulthood. Later, She went on to open up her own dance studio, Hopkins School of Dance, where she was the director, choreographer and dancing instructor extraordinaire for 25 years until her retirement in 2005. She had a special ability to transform students and parents, both physically and spiritually.

Lorraine was also active in her Catholic community as a facilitator for Lord Teach Me to Pray, The Ignatian Study Course, as a member of Magnificat, Metairie and Life In The Spirit, she served as a docent at St. Joseph Abbey and before relocating to Covington, she was a very active parishioner on many committees in the parishes of Our Lady of Divine Providence and St. Mary Magdalen.

Lorraine Brockhaus Guidry of Covington, LA passed away peacefully in the arms of our Lord on Thursday, September 20, 2018. She was born on February 28, 1941 in New Orleans, LA to the late John Henry Brockhaus, Jr. and Verna Longshore.

Melinsa, Kelly & Laurie,Mrs. Lorraine became my hero at age 4. It was my 1st dance class and I was in awe. She made me love dance and made me love becoming a dance teacher later in life. It was because of her and her teaching that made me strive to be the best teacher that I could be.She was truly an Angel on earth as she is now in Heaven. I hope your Mother knew how much she was loved and how much of a difference she made in so many young lives. I have thought of your Mother often and always with fond memories. She was one of the most kind, caring and loving teachers a child could ever ask for. I see though your words in her memorial that she never changed and stayed the same wonderful person I remember all of those years ago.Please accept my condolences on your loss. The world would be a much better place if we had more people like your Mother in it.I will keep you all in my prayers and Mrs. Lorraine in my heart forever.Sherri Pierce

Although I had the pleasure of only knowing Lorraine for a few years, it was obvious her life was one filled with love and family. She never hesitated to share her experiences and emotions, and always was a friend with a smile. She went above and beyond when she felt strongly about a cause, and was a brave leader. Lorraine will be foremost in my mind as a trailblazer, and a strong woman. Bless you, Lorraine. Dawn Barrios

To Lorraine's beloved family: Please accept our sincere condolences. Lorraine was so much to so many, and the heart and soul of her family. So many words come to mind, humble, nurturing, warm, giving, caring...a mother, grandmother, wife, sister, teacher, friend, a role model; and always a faithful servant of the Lord. It is beyond difficult to accept the loss of someone so special. As the saying goes, grief is the last act of love we have, for someone we have loved so very much. Where there is deep grief, there was great love. Lorraine is alive in your hearts, remember that. She has reached her own personal finish line; now able to rejoice with our heavenly Father, free of all earthly suffering. May God hold you and keep you. With much love and prayers, your cousins, Jody & Diane Durand, and family.
