Carolyn, it is now two weeks since you left us and it has been mightly lonely here without you. I walk around this house thinking you will be in the other side but you are not there. I look at all of your clothes either in the closets or the ones you have on the kids bed especially that one that you had just ironed and how I imagine seeing you wearing that pretty black & white blouse. You always dressed beautifully. I miss you so much. LOVE ALWAYS Johnny

Carolyn, I am trying my best to keep everything in the house the way you would have wanted it to be. I can hear you saying "put that away, pickup your shoes, don't drop that there, etc. etc. Our house was always looking very nice because of your dedication in doing so much. LOVE ALWAYS.

Melissa, she very much enjoyed the way you treated her. She never went to bed without her hair in foam rollers unless she was getting a haircut the next in our 55 yrs. of marriage. I or anyone could never touch her hair and she was very concerned that her hair was perfect before leaving the house.
