I always loved my big brother Tom with my whole heart and soul. He was so special to me. Everyone in our family, my children, my son-in-law, my sister-in-law, my cousins, my nieces and nephews have always loved and had the upmost respect for my brother. My Mother and Daddy taught us to have respect for everyone, we were taught not to call anyone names, and never fight with each other or others. Tom respected women and men equally, black and white equally. He was a good man and I shall miss him always. I know he suffered from his disease, but I know he is. In the Lords arms and finally free of pain. Even knowing that I miss him so much that it hurts. I only wish he could have lived a better life for the last two to three years. Whenever I visited him his whole face would light up like a Christmas tree. He enjoyed my visits visits with my cousin Margaret, and sometimes with my daughter ALICE and JULIE . I shall remember those visits always. Rest In Peace my Brother. I will always love you. Your sister, Audrey Gaudet
