Our dear Uncle Red, the last to leave us from the Burns family. So many memories and he shared that beautiful red hair with his sisters. Just loved him so much and my heart is heavy now but he's with his Nickie and all the rest of his family. He was a loving man who loved his family and in turn they loved him back. Is there anything else that needs to be said, Sweet Uncle we will miss you but we trust you are forever in joy and peace with your Father above. Niece Chris Crowbridge and Mary McBair

Cheryl Montecino lit a candle in honor of Louis.

Mr Red and Ms Nickie were treasured in our old neighborhood on Schnell Drive. Would do anything for their neighbors. I can remember Ms Nickie always at church or cooking and Mr Red always working or in his spare time practicing golf swings in the front yard! The love this man and his wife had for each other were unmatched💔 There will be a special place in my heart always for these two special people.
